He was diagnosed with HLH after meeting 5 out of 8 criteria.

CASE PRESENTATION

A 54-year-old male farmer with a history of COPD presented with nausea, vomiting, and dyspnea for six days.

Notably, he had a tick bite one week prior to presentation.

Vitals: T 98.6, BP 136/55, HR 96, RR 20, SpO2 95% on room air

We present a case of HLH due to Anaplasmosis infection.

REFERENCES

